will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

DUCED by the extensive sale and universal use of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable), the ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous Druggists are now imposing suffering humanity the trash called Tonics, Bitters, the whole of which, under the name of poor Whiskey, with only a little more injurious drugs and christened Tonic & Cordial Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic stimulants in pint bottles and big bellied kegs, under the high sounding appellation of Bitters; which undermine the constitution, create a craving for intoxicating liquors, and leave the deluded victim a confirmed drunkard.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Hoofland's German Bitters are entirely vegetable, and are not recommended as a beverage, but as a medicine. Their ingredients are extracted from roots, herbs and barks, which grow in our forests, and their virtues are fully known to the inhabitants of the United States. The proprietors have thousands of letters from all parts of the country, certifying to the following diseases, which have been cured by the use of these Bitters:

CLERGYMEN,

LAWYERS,

PHYSICIANS

testifying of their own personal knowledge to the effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

If you want something to strengthen you, if you want a good appetite?
if you want to build up your constitution?
if you want to feel well?
if you want to get rid of nervousness?
if you want energy?
if you want to sleep well?
if you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge, says he has not depended to favorably upon any medicine he ever used, through life. Just know of no medicine so well adapted to the infirmities of old age, as a simple preparation of Hoofland's German Bitters.

Dr. C. M. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have used your Hoofland's German Bitters in my family, and have found them to be the best remedy for Dyspepsia and Debility, &c., that I have ever used. I have also used them in my practice, and have found them to be a valuable tonic, and well calculated to build up the constitution when debilitated from any cause. Yours, truly, JOHN HUNTER, M. D.

Dr. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, I have sold German Bitters a number of years, and have no hesitancy in saying that they have given more general satisfaction than any medicine I have ever sold in my store. I have sold them to persons who were laboring under all the diseases that the system is heir to, and they have never failed to do good. Yours, &c., JOHN M. KEAGY.

THURSDAY MORNING OCT 8 1863

The Traitor s Wish

Vallandigham, in a speech at Newark N J in April last said

It has been proclaimed that it never was the Confederates intention to invade the Northern States Yet if this war is kept up battles fought no relenting spirit no prospect of peace no sound of concord to reach their ears THEY OUGHT TO BE INDUCED TO MAKE THIS INVASION

This is the doctrine and the hope of the man whom the Democracy of Ohio unanimously nominated and endorsed—whom peace men in Oregon call a patriot and hope may be elected, for whose arrest, because of his constant utterance of similar treason, with a design and desire to reduce the army and aid the rebellion, the patriotic Burnside was denounced—and for whose election most surprising of all, even some professedly Union politicians are desirous, if thus they may defeat those whom they call abolitionists For ourselves, we can only say, that if there is a depth of political and moral infamy, which the Ohio traitor has not sounded, we can not imagine it Sooner than support him or consent, under any circumstances to wish him success or give him a vote, we would cheerfully welcome the election of any man who is opposed to the rebellion and ready to aid in its suppression The latter might be very wrong and mischievous in his opinions, and even desire that the Government should subjugate to the utmost the rebel States, but he could not be so dangerous or so wicked as the traitor who is base enough to say that the South 'ought to be induced to invade the loyal States' Such a man is a moral monster, whom loyal men ought not to tolerate in any position, or under any possible circumstances

REBEL EULOGY OF THE SANITARY COMMISSION —From the commencement of the rebellion, the Sanitary Commission has had agents on every battle field, in every camp and hospital, to rescue the unfortunate sufferer from the miseries of neglect and untimely death This is felt and appreciated by the rebels as well as the Union soldiers At the battle of Gettysburg, two of the agents of the Sanitary Commission were captured and are now in Libby Prison, Richmond The moment this was known to the rebel surgeons in our hospitals, they united in a petition to Gen Lee for their release This petition is worth recording, and is as follows

"The undersigned, Surgeons of the Confederate army, now in charge of the several hospitals within the Union lines, and about Gettysburg, beg leave to testify to our General in Chief in favor of the United States Sanitary Commission as a most praiseworthy and charitable institution Through its kind provisions our hospitals are supplied with many comforts which are of inestimable value to our wounded and suffering men While the promptness with which their agents follow on the heels of battle enables them to dispense an immense amount of relief to the unfortunate sick and wounded soldiers on either side, it also necessarily exposes them to any reverse of fortune which may oblige them to ask protection from the successful party Thus, during the late battle of Gettysburg four of the agents of the Sanitary Commission fell into our hands and, as we learn, are now held as prisoners of war We respectfully submit that as these men were taken without arms and while in the employ of their charitable office as almoners of the Sanitary Commission to the wounded soldiers of either party, they be released from restraint, and permitted to return to their work of benevolence and good will to all"

The above was signed by some twelve of the chief surgeons of the rebel army, and directed to General Lee

IDAHO NEWS —The Marshal of Idaho, who has been taking the census of that Territory makes the number of white males to be 32 342, and of voters, 7,409 number of females, 1,080, number of children, 694

A Bannock City correspondent of the Walla Walla Statesman, writes That our mercantile community were a little startled a few days ago at the sudden disappearance of a Mr Hoyt, formerly of Olympia He has been quite a successful trader—his profits in less than two months have amounted to about $10,000 He was one of the street hawkers, or wholesale merchants that have been so plenty here all summer He used to spell sugar thus, 'shugar'—he did an extensive business, however and managed to buy goods of different parties on credit He owed one concern between three and four thousand dollars He had the money with him but couldn t well spare it When last heard of, he was traveling, as fast as possible, towards Salt Lake A purse of $1 000 was made up by his constituents and an express started after him, to invite him to return He made quite a raise out of some mining companies by agreeing to deliver flour to them at $20 per hundred they paying for it in advance

We have positive information by the Salt Lake Express that there is any quantity of eggs butter bacon salt and flour on the way here from Salt Lake Flour which had begun to do better in the market, has consequently got another black eye

A merchant from Lewiston named Hexter of the firm of H Seller & Co was shot by a desperado named Greenwood, on Sunday night, at Placerville and is not expected to live Greenwood is a half breed Cherokee and having a chief s blood in his veins supposed he was licensed to kill He of course made good his escape

Postage Currency

Dalles City October 4th 1863

To the REGONIAN

I beg in the columns of the OREGONIAN I wish to call the attention of those who may be concern to the affairs of the Post Office here Our Government furnishes the Paymasters of the U S army with a postage currency of small denominations such a ten twenty five and fifty cent bills Now these small notes are virtually foreign as they are made receivable for U S postage stamps at any post office The supposed have been issued for the purpose of enabling soldiers to procure postage stamps and letters forwarded in the event that the postage stamps now in possession of the Postmaster were bought in at a premium of eight per cent in gold and that he will not sell them for U S postage currency nor receive them in prepayment of letters Now the question naturally arises when we have a post office and a regularly appointed Postmaster why can t we use the U S currency in prepayment for postage?

Were it not for the peculiarity of this Postmaster who buys his postage stamps at a premium of eight per cent and sells them again at par until these must remain in the post office here until such time as the Postmaster General furnishes the office with stamps let it be days weeks or months It is evident there must be neglect on the part of some one connected with the Post Office Department, or such a state of affairs could never exist OBSERVER

In regard to the above, we can only say that it is clearly the duty of postmasters to receive the postal currency in exchange for stamps Of this, there can be no doubt and any officer would be liable in damages who should refuse to make the exchange For that purpose it is as good as greenbacks, and a refusal to receive it on a representation to the Department would beyond a doubt cause the removal of the officer It may seem hard, but as he buys stamps with currency on may do so, he can not be cheated by the exchange

THE PUNISHMENT OF SOUTH CAROLINA —The Worcester Spy proposes to heap "coals of fire" upon the heads of the Palmetto chivalry in the following manner

South Carolina has shut out light and will punish her with a flood of it She has barred her doors against Northern intelligence and discussion, she has frightened strangers into being deaf and blind A Northern gentleman walking in the streets of Charleston has been followed by the police for days under the suspicion of being an abolition agent, and only an accident saved him from arrest and imprisonment it was unsafe for a traveler to have a Northern newspaper in his pocket and now all this is changed

Where the army goes newspapers go with them—"pestilent abolition journals sufficiently outspoken to drive all the patriarchs mad in the neighborhood These papers have been issued in Virginia, the Carolinas Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi, Kentucky and Tennessee and the negroes have learned to read them' We will punish Carolina by giving her newspapers of the freest kind to all her people, to uplift and enlighten them

And finally, as the bitterest of all punishments we will bless her barbarism with the gift of free schools, the music of Northern school bells shall be heard through all her borders, ringing a benediction to the outcast and the poor The gospel of ignorance has been preached there long enough Yankee schools Yankee books Yankee civilization, have been sneered and railed at long enough This has constantly been the cry of the South

"That is detested schools of all wicked things in this wicked world—that spelling promoted infidelity, and that reading made men fanatical—that popular ignorance was public safety and popular enlightenment public peril—that the smaller the number of the educated class the greater was the stability of the political body See what public schools have done for the North! See what newspapers have done for New England! See how the art of printing has promoted unbelief and skepticism, and the incontinency of the married and single until all New England is no better than a very bad Sodom—while we—well, if you want pure, inflexible and immutable virtue, and enlightened, uncompromising and rational religion—you must look to us"

Now we will punish them with the blessings they despise and sweeping out the filth of their house, force them to a higher plane of living, force them to see the dignity and blessedness of labor force them to acknowledge the value of civilization over barbarism, and to bring them forth from their house of bondage into the light and of permanent prosperity and peace

NEW ENGLAND AND KENTUCKY —In a letter to R C Winthrop, of Boston, the well known divine and patriot, Robert J Breckinridge, writes

It may be the will of God that the most dreadful changes await our country If the very worst comes, I look that true and regulated liberty will perish last in New England In past years I have spoken freely in disapprobation of much that has been felt as an evil influence from New England, as it appeared to me But I never doubted and now less than ever that the roots of whatever produces freedom, equality and high civilization, are more deeply set in New England than in any equal population on the face of the earth As for Kentucky I will not trust myself to speak I heard Gen Burnside say that he considered the loyal people of Kentucky the most decided and disinterested he had anywhere seen, and that embraces two thirds of her entire population It is a people he loves by its qualities to be boastful but they will do, always, more than they ever say they will do

NO COPPERHEADS IN THE ARMY —A gentleman formerly a resident of Stockton, now a surgeon in an Illinois regiment of the Federal army writes to a friend as follows

Tell your father that we of the army have no doubt of our ultimate success in putting down the rebellion that there are no Copperheads or peace men in the army that we have also no envy and measure any extent in the North while the South has expended the last of each, that it is a mere question of time men and means that whatever peace is made slavery is to be abolished and the confiscation act, at which were directed so much Southern laughter and scorn, is all that its friends claimed for it a most deadly blow to Southern treason Call you see the thousands of slaves coming into our lines the thousands of fields lying waste and uncultivated for want of their labor the cry of distress going up from Southern planters it would satisfy you that it was a most effective weapon against our enemies

NO CONSCIENCE —The Richmond Dispatch says the late General Floyd received the sacraments of religion before he died and remarked that he was all out to leave this world without any regrets or fears

By Overland Telegraph.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to October 1.

NEW YORK Sept 30—Special Washington dispatches to the Herald say That the reverse in Northern Georgia compels the Government to send more troops than had been contemplated The present draft will not be enforced Another draft will probably take place very soon except in those States which protest against their quota being increased It is believed that nearly all the Western States will raise the quota Illinois now Ohio with the volunteers will furnish 80 000 men by the 1st January

Such orders Herald Chicago Times Alliance and Democrat seem to them laden with treasonable sense have all been captured by the rebels on the Cumberland since the 2d of September The first three were abandoned and run ashore The crews of all the vessels were taken and the Alliance She was last seen in Santa Rosa Sound bound south

FORTRESS MONROE Sept 27—Flowers has taken from the Richmond papers

ATLANTA Oct Sept 27—Gen Rosecrans has sent in two flags of truce asking permission to bury his dead and relieve his wounded Longstreet refused to do them

Five days later advices from western Arkansas state that the rebels under Coffee and Hunter are encamped near Cowskin Prairie with 6 000 men Third Kirby Smith was at Arkadelphia Ark with the main body of the rebel army said to number 20 000 men Gen Cabell with the Texas troops and Arkansas conscripts, has joined him

The powder mill at Arkadelphia containing upwards of 100 000 kegs of powder, exploded on the 10th This is regarded by the rebels as a most fatal Great disaffection exists among Smith s troops

Gen Blunt is at Fort Scott organizing new Kansas regiments which he expects to lead to Texas in a few days A formidable expedition is also organized at Berwick Bay and is now advancing into Texas the Confederate army retreating before it

A rebel guerrilla force under Logan is burning all the cotton to be found in Mississippi

SAN FRANCISCO Oct 2—The jury in the Chipman case have been empannelled The District Attorney has stated his case Two, one of the party who has turned States evidence, was examined and stated that they had a letter of marque signed by Jeff Davis

NEW YORK, Oct 1—Gold closed at 142½

NEW YORK Sept 30—The Tribune sketch says the enforcement of the death penalty in the Army of the Potomac is rapidly decreasing Conscripts and substitutes are arriving in considerable numbers also deserters who are forwarded to their destination and punishment

The Herald s Morris Island letter reports the arrival of 2 or 3 divisions of Lee s army at Charleston Beauregards force now numbers 25 or 30 000 men Evans' division is known to be with him

On Sept 24th one of our rifled guns opened for a while on Fort Johnson with great effect

BALTIMORE Sept 30—The Richmond Inquirer of yesterday has dispatches dated at Charleston 28th which says the enemy with their Morris Island batteries fired slowly at the ruins of Sumter to day for the first time in several weeks No damage done

NEW YORK, Sept 30—The Times' dispatch says the 20th and 20th army corps have been consolidated and will be called the 4th corps commanded by Maj Gen Granger The War Department has directed a court of enquiry to investigate the conduct of Generals Mc Cook and Crittenden It is understood that Rosecrans has made serious charges against them

NEW YORK Sept 1—The Richmond Examiner of the 29th ult, says Gen Lee has officially communicated to the War Department that Howard s division, and also Slocum s of the Army of the Potomac have gone to Rosecrans It is also stated he has been reinforced by Grant to the number of 10 000 men

A Mobile dispatch of the 26th says New Orleans advices say a most disastrous reverse occurred to the Federals in Louisiana This confirms the rumor that Gen Weitzel had been defeated and killed by Col Dick Taylor at Napoleon in that State

An Atlanta Ga, dispatch says Bragg in reply to the request of Rosecrans for permission to bury their dead and relieve their wounded, said he had enough Yankee prisoners to bury their dead and Yankee surgeons enough to attend the wounded

Another Atlanta dispatch reports General Wheeler with his cavalry has crossed the Tennessee Another dispatch of the same date says Lookout mountain held by Hood s division is now under fren Jenkins It is not supposed an assault will be made as we command the situation and need not sacrifice our men Rosecrans has two lines of defense 600 yards apart

Gen Longstreet commands the river and Railroad below Chattanooga Our loss in killed and wounded will not exceed 12,000 The Yankee loss in killed wounded and prisoners is 28 000 Five Yankee hospitals fell into our hands full of their wounded On Thursday night the 24th the Yankees made two attempts on our lines They were driven back both times to their entrenchments

CHARLESTON Sept 27—The enemy is evidently making himself impregnable on Morris Island

NEW YORK Oct 1—The World s dispatches say it is understood that Halleck has dispatches from Rosecrans of a satisfactory character, but imperfect for publication The rebels have made no demonstrations for several days

The Tribune s dispatches say that the statement that a new draft for 600 000 men is about being made is premature No steps will be taken towards a new draft till the present one is complied with several of the Western States which have not yet exceeded their quota of volunteers sufficient they say that under the draft—such as Michigan Indiana and Wisconsin The same paper also says that Generals McCook and Crittenden have been relieved of their commands and ordered to report at Indianapolis

CHICAGO Sept 1—An Indianapolis letter of the 30th says a large portion of the Army of the Potomac was moving at Chattanooga on the 25th and Slocum s corps have been pressing through that city on Saturday and Sunday daily this time are well on their way to Nashville The soldiers said the 11 corps of Meade s army were on their way westward The latter says up to the present writing 25 000 troops have passed through there and still they come Aside from Potomac troops many other transfers are going forward to Rosecrans many more than the public believe Heavy stuff passed through on Sunday night

ARRESTS IN NORTH CAROLINA —A copy of the Raleigh (N C) Standard received in the East contains numerous reports of some ten days old through which the State This is the first intelligence to the Confederacy to get the war until less good to the first quality I find and dignity That journal still maintains its fearless and high toned course against the Davis conspirators The revolution there is fast ripening

CITY COUNCIL —The body convened last night Present Messrs Lucas Saxer Austin Watson and Mr President

On motion the rules were suspended, and the Council went into an election for Councilman, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr Sherlock, from the First Ward Mr Albert Zeiber received five votes and was declared elected a member of the Board

The Street Commissioner was instructed to notify owners of lots to occupy portions of the same for building purposes

The Committee on Ways and Means reported the Assessment Roll, and recommended its adoption

An Ordinance was introduced providing for levying and collecting a special tax of five mills on the dollar on all real and personal property as returned by the Assessor the same to be paid over to the Collector, in U S gold or silver coin, by the 15th of December next and upon failure to do so an additional five per cent thereto shall be taxed

The motion, the Ordinance was read a second time and third time by title, and passed, by the following vote

Yeas—Messrs Lucas, Saxer and Mr President—3

Nays—Messrs Austin and Watson—2

On motion adjourned

SNAG BOAT A ROCK —The steamer Rival, while lying around at Oregon City, struck a snag, knocking a hole in her bow, which leaked considerable leak—but the Captain succeeded in bringing her to this city, notwithstanding she had several feet of water in the hold She was immediately discharged, and hauled out (across the river) for repairs The Baker takes her place

LOOKING UP AGAIN —Eighteen families, who arrived overland, took passage, day before yesterday, on the sloop Christina, for Pacific City—once the promised rival of Astoria

CHANGE OF TIME —On and after Monday next the steamer Vancouver will leave this city for Vancouver at half past two o'clock, instead of three, as heretofore

FOR THE WILLAMETTE MINES —We learn that there is a company forming in this city for the purpose of starting for the newly discovered gold placers in the Cascade range, near the Santiam river

TOKEN OF REGARD —At a supper, prepared by a number of Hebrew ladies of Portland, on the Isath Torah (Rejoicing of the Law) a festival celebrated annually on occasion of the conclusions of the Pentateuch, at the Synagogue, the members of the Congregation Beth Israel, of this city presented Mr L Baum with, during the last two years President of said Congregation, a beautiful gold headed cane, in token of their sincere regard, on the occasion of his retirement from office, Mr Baum on receiving the high regard of his fellow-citizens for his straightforwardness, unobtrusiveness and integrity The present, handed to the recipient by Mr Jacob Mayer, President elect was delivered and accepted with short and appropriate remarks

A COPPERHEAD CARTRIDGE —On the morning of election day, a Washoe county official made his appearance in Galena with a huge roll of Copperhead tickets, and immediately set about to find some one of his stripe, to whom he could safely intrust them for distribution and having looked all over town and failed to find any one anxious to perform the traitorous and patriotic duty, he was about to give up in despair of accomplishing the object of his mission, when, to his great delight he discovered an hombre (in whose phiz he thought he discovered indications of verdigris) sitting at a table in the Young American saloon He approached said hombre cautiously and in a mysterious and excited manner, accosted him with, 'I say, W, I wish you'd take those tickets and cut them, and distribute them for me'

'Certainly I'll do it with pleasure,' said the other

'Well, don't let any one hate any unless they use them' said Mr Official, supposing he was properly understood

'Of course I won t Do you suppose I am going to this country box I up?' replied W with a glance that seemed to assure the official that he was all right

'Satisfactory!' exclaimed Mr Official as he turned his horse to go But he was scarce out of sight before W with a sharp jack knife, had cut the tickets first diagonally across crosswise, and then into pieces well ordered with notches points and scallops, in every conceivable fantastic shape and as a common was about being loaded to herald the news that one hundred straight Union tickets deposited in the ballot box W gathered the fragments, thrust them into the gun, and rammed it full to the muzzle The match was applied, and thus were 1 000 useless Copperhead tickets distributed —Washoe Times

LABOR DEFINED —Mrs Kemble, in her Residence in Georgia thus tersely speaks of the social status of labor at the South

"The Northern farmer thinks it no shame to work He Southern planter does and begins and ends the difference in their condition Industry means crown of honor degradation and abomination by which they are surrounded—pride profligacy idleness and ineffable abasement

CITY COUNCIL —This body convened last night. Present Messrs Lucas, Saxer Austin Watson, and Mr President

On motion, the rules were suspended and the Council went into an election for Councilman to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr Sherlock, from the First Ward. Mr Albert Zerber received five votes and was declared elected a member of the Council.

The Street Commissioner was instructed to notify owners of lots to occupy portions of streets for building purposes

The Committee on Ways and Means reported the Assessment Roll, and recommended its adoption.

An Ordinance was introduced providing for levying and collecting a special tax of five mills on the dollar on all real and personal property as returned by the Assessor the same to be paid over to the Collector, in U S coin

The Ordinance coming up for its second and third time, by title, and passed, by the following vote

Yeas—Messrs Lucas, Saxer and Mr President—3

On motion adjourned

SNAG ROCK —The steamer Ricca, while dragging around at Oregon City struck a snag, knocking a hole in her bow, which caused a considerable leak—but the Captain succeeded in bringing her to this city not withstanding she had several feet of water in the hold. She was immediately discharged, and hauled out (across the river) for repairs. The Reliance takes her place

LOOKING UP AGAIN —Eighteen families, just arrived overland, took passage, day before yesterday, on the sloop Christiana, for Puget City—once the promised rival of Portland.

CHANGE OF TIME —On and after Monday next, the steamer Vancouver will leave this city for Vancouver at half-past two o'clock, P M, instead of three, as heretofore

FOR THE WILLAMETTE MINES —We learn that there is a company forming in this city for the purpose of starting for the newly discovered gold placers in the Cascade range, near the Santiam river

PANORAMAS, PICTORIALS AND EVERYTHING —MCCORMICK received last night a full assortment up to the latest dates

WHO WANTS THE NEWS?—At Barrett's, in Ware building, everybody can find some matter of interest among his abundant stock of illustrated papers, magazines, etc etc

THE DIORAMA —On Friday evening next, our citizens can have the pleasure of seeing that justly celebrated work of art—representing, life like, interesting scenes of the American Rebellion, the Russian War, and the Indian Massacre in Minnesota. Don't fail to attend, if you desire a rich treat See the advertisement.

TOKEN OF REGARD —At a supper, prepared by a number of Hebrew ladies of Portland, on Simchath Torah (Rejoicing of the Law), a festival celebrated annually on occasion of the completion of the Pentateuch, at the Synagogue, the members of the Congregation Beth Israel of this city, presented Mr L Blum, for the last two years President of said Congregation, a beautiful gold headed cane, in token of their sincere regard, on the occasion of his retirement from office. Mr Blum enjoys the high regard of his fellow-citizens for his straightforwardness, unobtrusiveness and integrity The present, handed to the recipient by Mr Jacob Mayer, President elect was delivered and accepted with short and appropriate remarks

A CARTRIDGE CARTRIDGE —On the morning of election day, a Washoe county official made his appearance in Galena with a huge roll of Copperhead tickets, and immediately set about to find some one of this stripe, to whom he could safely intrust them for distribution, and having looked all over town, and failed to find any one anxious to perform the odious and patriotic duty, he was about to dispair of accomplishing the object of his mission, when, to his great delight, he discovered an hombre (in whose phiz he thought he discovered indications of verdigris) sitting perched up, and apparently half asleep in front of the Young America saloon He approached said hombre cautiously, and in a hurried and excited manner, accosted him thus: Isay, W., I wish you'd take these tickets and cast them, and distribute them for me.

"Certainly, I'll do it with pleasure, ' said W

"Well, don't let any one have any, unless they vote them," said Mr. Official, supposing he was properly understood

"Of course I won't Do you suppose I came to his country boxed up?" replied W, with a glance that seemed to assure the official that he was all right.

Satisfactory!" exclaimed Mr Official, as he turned his horse to go. But he was scarce out of sight before W with a sharp jack knife, had "cut" the tickets, first diagonally, then crosswise, and then into pieces well enough, mixed with notches, points and snaillops, in every conceivable fantastic shape, and as a result was about being loaded to behold the Union in the ballot box, W gathered the pieces, thrust them into the gun, and poured it full to the muzzle The match was applied, and thus were 1,000 useless Copperhead tickets "distributed" —Washoe Paper

SLAVES DESPISED —Mrs Kemble, in her residence in Georgia thus tersely speaks of the social status of labor at the South

The Northern farmer thinks it no shame to work. The Southern planter does and here begins and ends the difference in their condition Industry man's crown of honor elsewhere, is in the South his badge of utter degradation, and so comes all by which they are surrounded—pride, profligacy, idleness, poverty, starvation, ignorance, squalor, dirt and indescribable abasement

Remarkable Cure

Bristol Monroe Co (Mich) Oct 19 1863
MESSRS A B SANDS & Co —Justice to the efficacy of your DR BARKER'S PAIN KILLER AND SARSAPARILLA requires from me the statement that I was for a number of years afflicted with violent contractions of the joints of the legs, which resisted all remedies and rendered me a cripple for life. I was induced by the advice of friends to make a trial of your Pain Killer and Sarsaparilla, and by the use of a few bottles of the former and two of the latter, I was entirely relieved from the disease, and have since enjoyed perfect health. I am now sixty-four years old, and have been a resident of this place for thirty years, and am personally known to thousands of its citizens, and I shall be happy to answer any inquiries that may be addressed to me by those who may wish to know the facts in my case

In Every Age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians Each [illegible] is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage Hence the opposition which medical men too often exhibit to the use of private remedies whatever their acknowledged value or great efficiency in the cure of disease No medicine has ever done more further in this for human suffering than DR OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and scientific course of diseases? The Energy of the North.

A correspondent of the London Times, who certainly has no sympathy with the loyal sentiment of the Union, in a recent letter expresses his views upon the wonderful energy, the power and the manifold resources of the loyal and patriotic North. We quote an extract. After remarking upon the the defects of our unsteady army discipline, he continues:

"I have every day greater cause to wonder at the transcendant confidence of the majority of these Northern men in the ultimate success of their cause. The earnest steadiness with which they pursue their purpose is only commensurate with their recklessness with regard to the means which must lead to its attainment. Not only do they "not care," but they positively delight in the vastness of the sacrifice their country demands of them. They seem less eager for victory than for the fearful amount of blood and treasure by which they are to achieve it. "Are they sure to take Charleston?" you ask. "Ay, sure as death. The cost will be tremendous; but who would wish to have it at a cheap rate?" "Hang the expense!" is the motto. It is not of the result of their mighty effort that they are proud, but of the capabilities and resources of their country in putting forth such colossal power. The big war, they are anxious to prove, bears full proportions with the bigness of the Republic. Every man seems to swell before you as he dwells on the gigantic strength the State brings into the field. The navy has raised the number of men-of-war—which were only 60 at the outbreak of hostilities—to 600. What to-day costs millions, to-morrow will rise to tens of millions. They are not sorry for it; they are delighted at it; they will have no rest till the expense shall be hundreds of millions! A steam-frigate launches, a regiment is cut to pieces, an ironclad is sunk by the enemy. Hurrah! All the greater their joy. Here they are, ready with four new regiments, with four more steam frigates, with ten additional ironclads. Failure braces them up even more than success would elate them. All they are anxious to show is the boundlessness and inexhaustibleness of their means. There is no loss they cannot repair, no waste, no extravagance they cannot afford. Of this the world must be well assured. It is in this extent, in this expansiveness of their means, that lies the certainty of their progress to the end. They want to make much of it, doubtless; they brag an intolerable deal about it, we are all sure. It is on this lavish, wanton display of unlimited power that they lay their hope of irresistibleness. It is by it that they aspire to strike dismay and despair into the hearts of their present foe—that they trust to overawe their eventual enemy. How can the South, how can Europe have a chance to stand against this unwearyable giant? Let the struggle be prolonged to ever so many years, let the fortune of war be ever so fickle, and success alternate ever so blindly, America cannot fail to wear out all antagonism."

Such is the burden of the song that is daily dinned in my ears whenever I mix in conversation with persons about me. The present war can, I am everywhere assured, have but one issue. The South must give in, must surrender at discretion; Union must be restored; secession must lead to a thorough and speedy extinction of slavery. Whatever havoc and confusion emancipation may lead to will be of no moment in the great work of national regeneration, in the consciousness of power, in the display of strength to which this struggle has given rise. America can never be sufficiently thankful for the golden opportunity this war has given her, no less than the world at large, of setting a proper value on her unsuspected energies, on her latent vitality. Without their proverbial proneness to brag, the Americans themselves had no adequate notion, they say, of the bigness of their country, or of the might of the nation. This bigness and this might, they have now began to put forth at the expense of their Southern brethren; and they will end by displaying them at the cost of their trans-Atlantic cousins. Yes, war with Europe, war with England, is the object of their most ardent aspirations. They talk about it with a zest, with a glibness which perfectly amazes me. Were there a conspiracy among them all to hoodwink, to bamboozle, to impose upon me, I must say they could hardly have learnt their part with greater diligence; they would scarcely practice their lesson upon me with more consummate skill, concert and unanimity. The feeling of hostility to England, which was deep and earnest in New York, acquires fresh liveliness and intensity as I draw near to the seat of Government at Washington. It may be all idle vaporing and big talk. Men must judge of it in England as their sober judgment prompts them; but I cannot help seeing and noticing what falls before my daily observation. If men ever meant what they say, the Americans must and will have a war with England—a big war—a war like that they are now waging with the South, granting no quarter, and aiming at extermination!

SENATOR CONNESS ON THE REBELLION.—The Philadelphia Press publishes the following extract of a letter from Senator Conness, addressed to the editor, Col. J. W. Forney:

Since I have thought at all, I have religiously believed in universal human liberty. For a while I restrained myself, whether rightfully or not, in obedience to a desire for peace and to the obligations I felt I owed to the country as I found it. The enemies of right, human progress and of civil liberty everywhere, have broken the peace I had fostered, and have relieved me of the obligation I have felt, by their malignant assault upon our Government. I would be less than a man did I not feel that everything must be done to strengthen the hands of those through whose acts alone we can save this great nation from destruction. I do not feel entitled to any credit for this. It is the simple duty of the citizen. I do not know that our virtue is thereby magnified. I have always been a Democrat. I was only a Democrat because Democracy meant the greatest extension of civil rights to the human kind consistent with civil order. We were working out that problem peacefully until this war was made upon us to supplant liberty by slavery, and to degrade us in the estimation of mankind. Our enemies have forced upon us a contest between slavery and freedom, between barbarism and civilization, which they have said shall be determined by blows. They are discovering, what sensible people understood before, that blows can be received as well as given. The "pine" is "swinging against the palm," and I say, "God help them" to a severe and speedy punishment for their great, unnatural crime against civil liberty! There are those who profane and arrogate to themselves the term Democracy, which they undertake to use in restraint of the Government in this great fight to weaken its arms and to paralyze its limbs. O what a cruel and base use they make of the Democratic name! When, before this, where human rights were involved, were the Democracy of the nation not on the war path? Heretofore the name was the symbol of courage. They would now use it to cover crime and cowardice. Those who are engaged in it will yet wish they had never been born.

BEN. BUTLER.—According to a Washington dispatch, the Administration has given out intimations that, after the capture of Charleston, Ben. Butler will be placed in command of that Department. If you have a fraction of brains or heart left, Abraham Lincoln, you will not do this thing. We are in favor, if the military magnates so will it, of razing Charleston to the ground, of plowing it up, and sowing it with salt and leaving it to be a desolation evermore. But we will protest against an act which would be cruder, more insulting, more malignant than all this, and that is the appointment of Ben. Butler to be military despot of what was once Charleston. If it be desirable to invite the South to pour out the bitter cup of resistance to the very dregs; if it is best to suit upon the vanquished foe, and goad him with intolerable insults to fight, even while he grovels; if there be no Union to be restored, or peace to be hoped for, then let Ben. Butler be the tyrant of Charleston. But we cannot believe that Lincoln contemplates any such infatuated proceeding as this. The wisdom and moderation of Banks have not yet undone half the mischief which Butler did in New Orleans. Plunderer, pettifogger and tyrant, it were better that he were kept to make Abolition stump speeches at the North for the remainder of his life, at a million dollars per annum, than that he should again be sent to any other point of the South than the Dry Tortugas.—Buffalo Courier.

The Courier, Copperhead as it is, fogls bad about Butler.

UNCLE SAM'S BAKERY AT ALEXANDRIA, VA.—Among other big things in which Uncle Sam is engaged, he is carrying on the largest bakery in the world. It is located near Alexandria, and covers a little more than an acre of ground. About 200 men are constantly employed, 20 ovens are in operation, and between 400 and 500 barrels of flour are daily converted into good bread for the Army of the Potomac and Hospitals and garrisons around Alexandria. 500 barrels of flour will turn out 90,000 loaves or rations of bread, 22 ounces to the loaf. Gas has been introduced throughout the building and into the ovens, so that the bakers can see that the bread is not overdone or not baked enough. The water is also introduced, and 600 feet of hose kept on hand to guard against fire. The railroad passes by the side of the main building, where flour is delivered from the cars into the warehouses, and the bread is taken directly into the cars and sent to the Army of the Potomac, who thus receive fresh bread every day. It has turned out 114,550 loaves of bread in one day.

A MODEL DEFINITION.—The Dayton (O.) Journal gives the following scientific definition of "Greek Fire!"

A subscriber asks us "What is Greek fire?" It is an unconstitutional composition, compounded by diabolical Yankee Abolitionists, for the express purpose of distressing the friends of the Peace Democracy. Its immediate effect will be to give Beauregard and the Charlestonians a foretaste of what may befall them hereafter.
